Pointwise User Group Meeting 2010 - Call for Papers

Pointwise's User Group Meeting will be on April 13-14, 2010, in Fort Worth, TX, featuring presentations by top engineers sharing their best projects. Now is the time to show others what you have been doing.

Past papers have included meshing research papers, unique applications of Gridgen and Pointwise and advanced scripting usage to automate Gridgen and Pointwise. We especially are looking forward this year to presentations demonstrating our new product, Pointwise.

Details:

- Subject matter: CFD or similar computational work for which Gridgen or Pointwise was used for meshing
- Presentation length: 20 minutes plus a brief question and answer period
- Deadline: Abstracts of 500 words or less are due Jan. 31, 2010.
- Send to: ugm@pointwise.com
- Format: plain text, Microsoft Word or PDF
